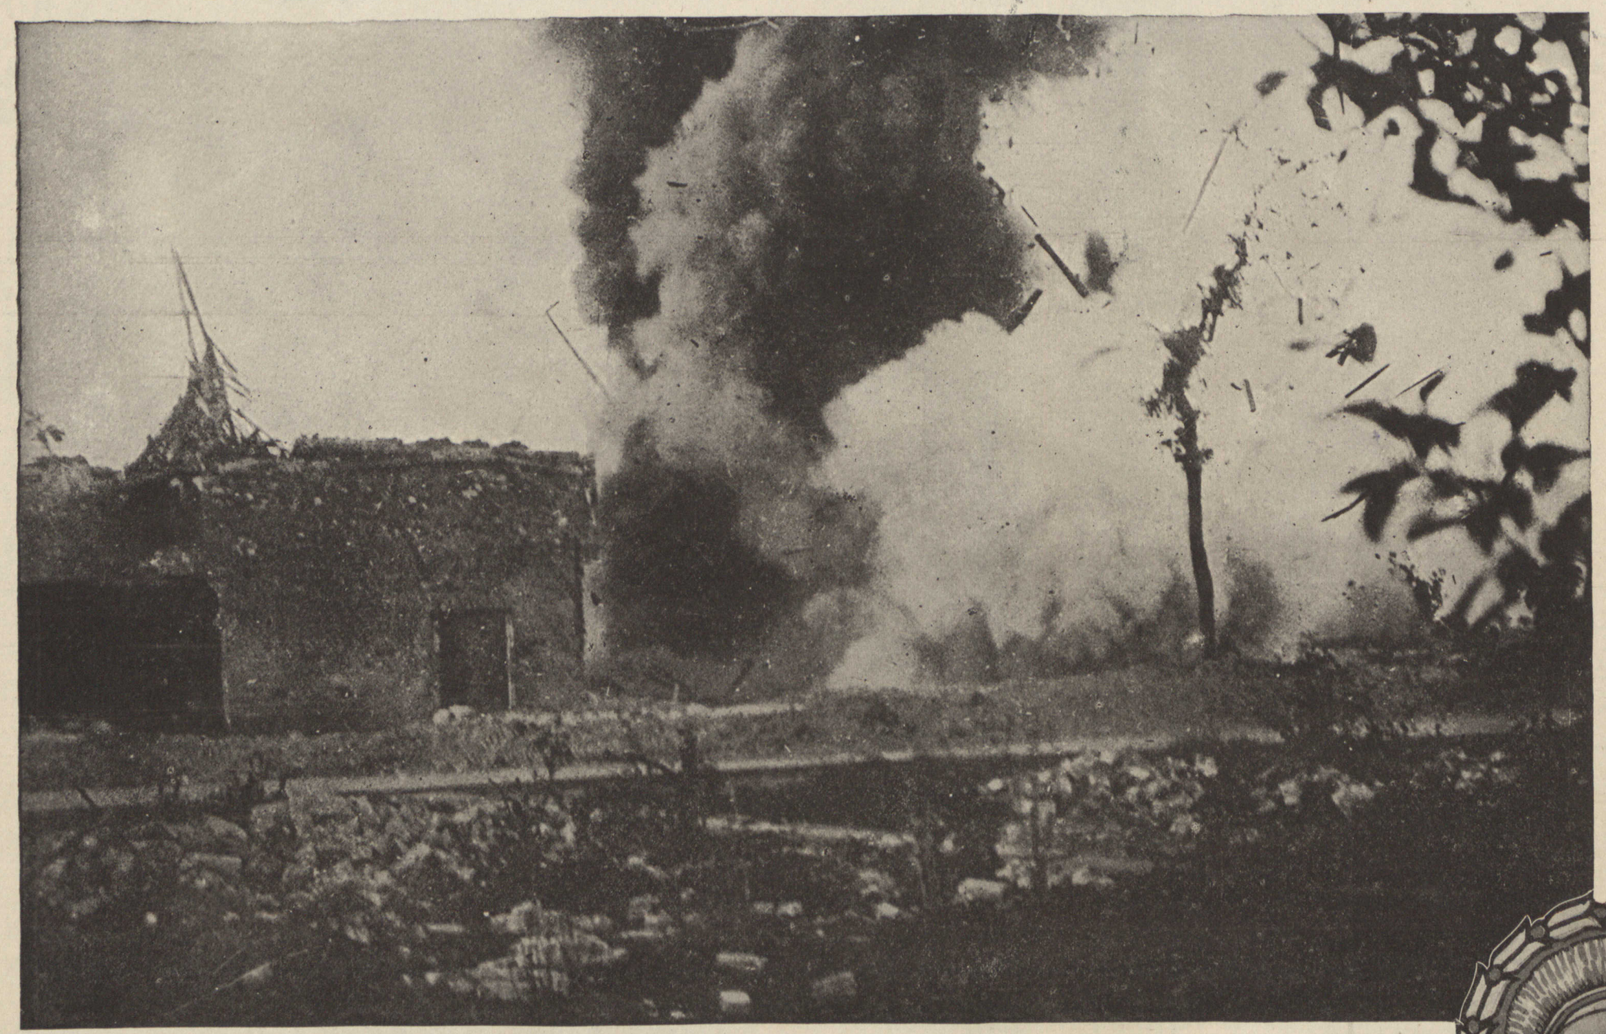
THERE ARE NO MEDALS FOR THE HEROES OF THE CAMERA IN THE BATTLE OF THE LENS

NEW YORK TRIBUNE



This photograph of a German shell bursting in a French fortification was taken at a distance of 15 metres. The photographer was seriously wounded.

Exclusive photograph. © Medem Photo Service.

For strategic purposes the Belgians destroyed the Church of Lampernisse. Two statues, one of the Christ and the other of a Saint, fell from their places at the explosion, but remained standing upright.

Exclusive photograph. © Medem Photo Service.

A French camp in the ruins of a bombarded church. The soldiers have constructed tables and chairs of wicker work.

Exclusive photograph. © International News Service.

The mine which demolished the Church of Lampernisse at the moment of explosion. Previously Lampernisse had been shelled by German artillery.

Exclusive photograph. © International News Service.

JANUARY 23, 1916.