In the Trenches Along the Meuse and at Other Points on the French Front.

Exclusive photographs taken by official photographers of the French army and published by special arrangement with the Minister of War.

The trench fighters of the Meuse call this an American Boardwalk."

A "hand-warmer" in one of the winter trenches.

A Lieutenant interrogating a sentinel.

Staff headquarters in a fortified and furnished cave.

The Ravine of Death at Les Esparges.