

WHERE SHALL WE GO?

You Will Find Reliability and Supreme Comfort Here

HOTEL BELLECLAIRE
NEW YORK

Broadway at 77th St.
Surface Cars at Door
Subway at 79th St.

Only a few minutes from the Shopping and Theatrical District.

“B”—the trade mark adopted for the BELLECLAIRE—is the initial letter of the name. It is also the initial letter of the name of the manager—Blackman, Robert D.

These two B's are busy B's. Ever since last September the BELLECLAIRE has entertained regularly 300 guests—all it can accommodate.

But guests come and go. Only those who make the BELLECLAIRE their permanent home remain by the year. There are some others who remain with us from November until April—the period during which their country homes are closed. The majority remain a few days at a time. They are out of town visitors to New York.

In order to keep all of the rooms occupied all of the time it is necessary to have a following of at least 20,000 people during the year. How do we get this following?

There are only two ways in which to build a hotel trade as we see it:

1. To serve guests so well that they are completely satisfied—making them feel like coming back again and also telling their friends about the Hotel.
2. To keep the Hotel before the public by advertising it regularly and making good all claims made in the advertisements.

We are equipped to serve meals to a greater number of people than is represented by our guests. We operate a Main Dining Room—a Palm Room—a fine Grill—and a private dining room. We are serving more and more people all of the time because good meals are supplied at reasonable prices, and this knowledge is spreading.

People living in the West Side section—from 59th Street north—from Central Park West to Riverside Drive—should try the BELLECLAIRE'S food when they dine out. If they once try it they will come back again. We get many patrons from this section now, but we can accommodate more.

The fame of the food served by the BELLECLAIRE is not confined to a small area.

A lady wrote in from Maryland recently asking for our recipe for APPLE PIE. We sent her the recipe, also an Apple Pie, which was shipped by express. She wrote back that it was the finest Apple Pie she ever ate.

A guest of the Hotel, returning from a business trip to Albany, became engaged in conversation with a number of gentlemen in the smoking compartment of the train and mentioned that he was living at the HOTEL BELLECLAIRE, whereupon they said:

“Oh, that's the Hotel that advertises its food—Apple Pie, Rice Pudding, Ham and Eggs, Roast Beef, etc. Good idea that. New Yorkers are so surfeited with rich dishes that it must be a relief to them to know that one Hotel specializes in plain, home food.”

So you see how a Hotel becomes known.

ROBERT D. BLACKMAN.
