

Athletic sports are made a part of the training programme for British army recruits at Aldershot. King

George, the second figure from the left, has just dropped the flag starting the Military Cross Country Race.

© American Press Assoc.

Echoes of War's Alarums

"The Prayer of the Alsacienne" is the caption of the French Army photographer for this picture of a French maiden kneeling in a church in Alsace.

Exclusive photograph from the French War Ministry Office.

Although this Tommy Atkins has no legs, he, nevertheless, seems to be an optimist.

© International Film Service.

The Ship of the Desert rides in the gondola. Camels for the British troops operating on the Western frontier of Egypt are shipped by rail.

Photo from Janet M. Cummings.

Priest reading the burial service for a Russian officer. The soldier on the left is inscribing the name on a cross for the grave.

Underwood & Underwood

"Municipal Kitchen Wagon. Warm Dinner, 35 Pfennige a Portion. Delivered by the People's Cooking Society of Berlin." Nine-cent meals being served to a crowd of Berlin's poor.

© American Press Association