The Stuff That Held the Boches at Ypres.

These Canadian soldiers, ready for the Western front, are of the type that held the British line at Ypres. They are the 88th and 89th Battalions, C. E. F., being inspected at Ottawa by the Duke of Connaught. The view shows the repair work on the Government buildings which were partly destroyed by an explosion, believed to be the handiwork of a German sympathizer.
