

Tableaux for Suffrage in Central Park—Four bewitching buglers blew the clarion call to the banner of votes for women.

American Press Association

The Funeral of Seth Low—Bearing the body of New York's former Mayor from St. George's Church, in East Seventeenth Street.

George Grantham Bain

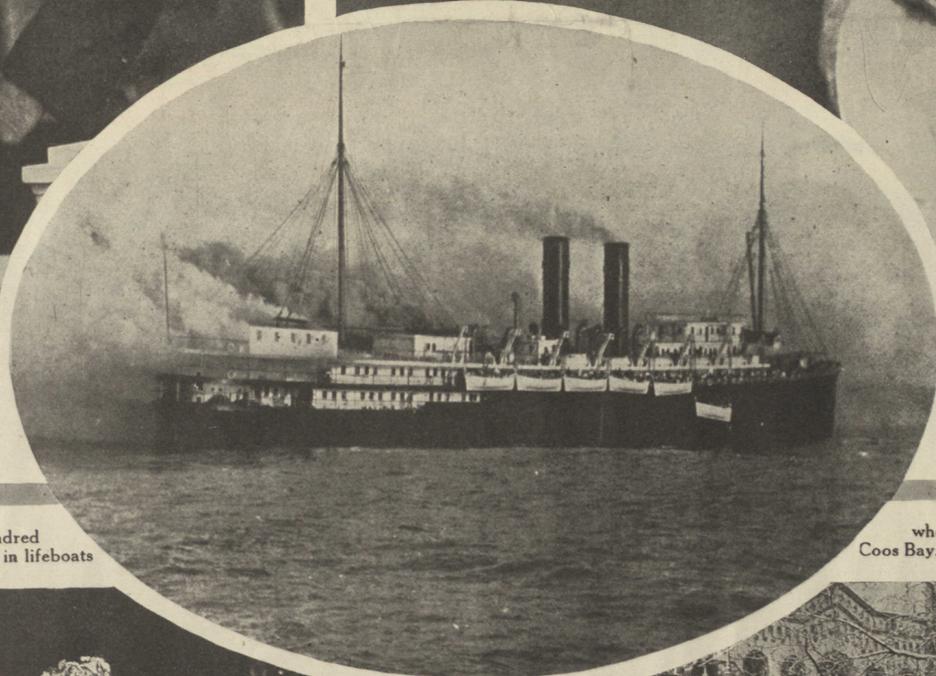

President Wilson Campaigning—The President made the first speech of his campaign for reelection from the porch of his summer home, Shadow Lawn.

Underwood & Underwood

The 71st Back from the Border—Sleepy, dusty and hungry, but hard as nails, New York guardsmen reach home.

Central News Photo Service

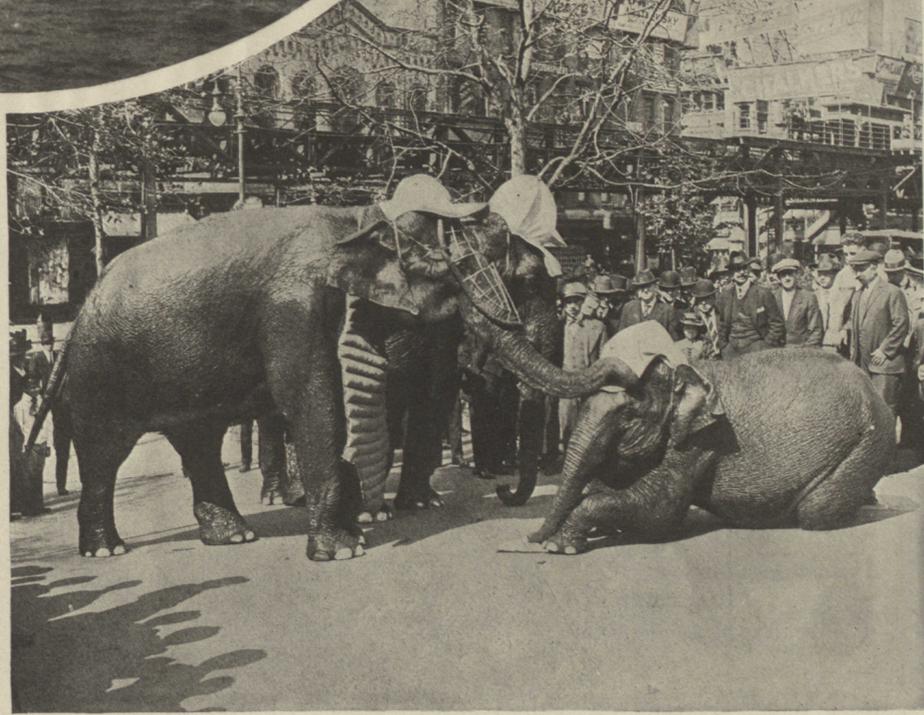

Liner Congress Burns at Sea—Four hundred and twenty-three passengers were rescued in lifeboats

when this Pacific coast steamer caught fire off Coos Bay, Oregon, on September 14.

International Film Service

Women Rehearse Campaign Trip—Members of the Hughes Alliance, under the direction of Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney, stage a dress rehearsal of the departure of the campaign party from Grand Central Station. From left to right they are: Mrs. Roger Bacon, Mrs. Lindsay Van Rensselaer, Miss Maude Wetmore, Miss Alice Carpenter, Miss Elizabeth Crosby, Mrs. Nelson O'Shaughnessy and Mrs. Maude Canfield.

Slide, Roxie, Slide!—When the Hippodrome elephants played ball in Bryant Park, Roxie was the star. She is here shown nosing a run over the plate after a long hit into the crowd. The ball came to the catcher on a bound, and he was a second late in putting it on the runner. The umpire, it will be seen, was right on top of the play.

Underwood & Underwood