HOTEL MAJESTIC

Fronting Central Park at Its West 72nd St. Gateway

SPEND the winter months in a luxurious suite in this magnificent hotel. Get away from the cares of housekeeping. Answer the living problem by residing in this refined environment. Get the habit of a bracing walk around the lakes and reservoir in the park before breakfast. Since leasing this property, a year and a half ago, Mr. Copeland Townsend has established a highly desirable patronage, and the hotel is enjoying the greatest prosperity in its history.

There is a wholesome life and amusement in the up-to-the-last minute Cafe "Moderne" every week day evening; also a social atmosphere of elegance and refinement that appeals to the most fastidious.

Dancing under the direction of Evelyn Hubbell of Castle House.

HOTEL BELLECLAIRE

Broadway at 77th St. Surface Cars at Door Sub. at 79th St.

Only a few minutes from the Shopping and Theatrical District.

What does a fine big room in a hotel mean to you if the meals served to you are not good?

What does a big outside bath room mean to you if the eggs you eat for breakfast are not fresh?

What does a pleasant smile mean to you if immediately after you go into the dining room and are served with bad coffee?

Experience in hotel direction has taught us that we can offer fine rooms, fine baths, extend courtesies from early morning until late at night—but if we don't give our guests good food and good cooking we might as well close up shop.

The Belleclaire's fine reputation has been won by serving the finest kind of good eating.

We do not neglect anything else to supply good meals but we know human nature, therefore, we buy the best food and engage the best cooks to cook it.

Ever tried a Belleclaire meal? Do so.
