ADVERTISMENT. HOTEL BELLECLAIRE NEW YORK

Broadway at 77th St. Surface Cars at Door Subway at 79th St.

Only a few minutes from the Shopping and Theatrical District.

A gentleman of international experience in hotel life has been living at the BELLECLAIRE for ten years and this is what he says:

"I am very much pleased with my room. It is always kept in fine order. I have a fine view from it, overlooking the Hudson.

"I am very careful about my eating because I am compelled to be, owing to a case of dyspepsia which I developed while engaged in business by eating hurried and irregular lunches.

"But I can always get what I want to eat here. The food is excellent and splendidly cooked. I get the finest kind of service.

"I travelled extensively while in business—stopping always at the best hotels in Europe and in this country. The house I represented always insisted that its people should stop at the best hotels, the theory of the boss being that the dignity and character of the house was better sustained if his representatives mingled among nice people.

"I formed the habit of living at the best hotels therefore, when I wanted a good home, with comfort, I made up my mind that the BELLECLAIRE would fill the bill. I came here and have been here ever since. I like the life here. The guests are friendly. The management is very courteous and considerate."

This is a statement which makes it worth while to work hard to run a hotel right.

ROBERT D. BLACKMAN.
