The first kick-off—La Roche, of Yale, fumbled Gennert's kick, but Le Gore recovered and ran to Yale's 36-yard line before Driggs stopped him.

Braden's field goal from the 25-yard line gave the Blue its first points. The ball may be seen passing over the goal bar.

The Yale Bulldog Takes His Annual Toothsome Bite Out of the Flank of the Princeton Tiger

"Cupid" Black and Harry Le Gore, Aided by Jim Braden, Helped Make the Score 10-0

Driggs, Princeton's star back, starting an end run. La Roche reaches for him, but misses him. Comerford, No. 15, plays a waiting game, and Black, with bandaged head, rushes in to dump the interference.

Ruth Law Breaks an Aeroplane Record

Driving a small biplane of obsolete type, this young aviatrice flew from Chicago to Hornell, N. Y., 590 miles, without a stop, and topped off the record Monday morning by buzzing to Governor's Island at a 100-mile-an-hour clip. General Wood congratulated her after she had removed the woollen mask (in right-hand picture) used to keep out the cold. "Nothing to make a fuss about," she said modestly of her feat.
