

The residence district of Atlanta, Ga., in flames. This photograph was taken at the height of the recent fire. Photo Central News Photo Service

Above are shown the nine men who will draw the names of those who are to come under the first conscription in September. Left to right: H. Frayne, L. Cromwell, Judge Freschi, Dr. W. G. Thompson, Dr. L. K. Frankel and M. Cruise. Photo Bain News Service

Colonel Peppino Garibaldi, grandson of the Liberator, who, with two brothers, is to be sent to America to recruit volunteer regiments among the Italians. Photo © Underwood & Underwood

Piatt Andrew, chief of the American Ambulance Corps in France, is shown to the left, receiving the decoration of the Legion of Honor. This photograph has just been received in this country. Photo Pictorial Press

The pioneer submarine Holland arrives in New York and is shown above being escorted to the grounds of the Bronx International Exposition, to be exhibited. The escort is a brigade of Junior Naval Scouts. Photo Central News Service

The local Home Defence League draws up for review at the site of Fort Washington. The unit is composed of bankers and business men of Washington Heights, who undergo a regular Sunday drilling. Photo © Underwood & Underwood

To the right, some of the machinery taken from the German liner Koenig Wilhelm II, damaged by the German crew. The photograph shows how the bolts have been broken off; shafts fractured and molten iron put into the bolt holes. Exclusive Photo, © Snyder & Price (From American Press Ass'n)

A freak of the recent cyclone at Mattoon, Ill. Tho the home shown above was entirely demolished, the family organ remained intact, and two of the children were able to pick out "Home, Sweet Home," amid the ruins. Photo © International Film Service