"The Tiger of the species is deadlier than the Yale." The Bulldog, 2 to 1 favorite, is defeated 13-6 in one of the season's greatest football games by Princeton before over 60,000 people in the great Yale Bowl at New Haven. To the left is Jim Sheerer, Princeton substitute fullback, who jumped into fame after being rushed into the game in the last quarter by picking up the pigskin after it had gone astray in a forward pass and running 30 yds. for a touchdown and the winning score.

Crouch & Fitzgerald made their first Luggage, using leather of the most distinguished integrity, in the year 1839. During each of the eighty years since then the original standards governing their employment of fine leathers, and of trained and painstaking workmen, and their methods of construction have remained unchanged. The only variation has been that of design. Such Luggage is made for a purpose, not for a price. The price is fixed after the article has been so designed and made that it may worthily bear the name and trademark of CROUCH & FITZGERALD.

The new tax has been included in each price given here.
